Tuesday, April 15th

6:00 PM—7:30 PM

_Skyview Cafeteria_

Please join us!!
Skyview Middle School Spring Bazaar

The Skyview Middle School PTSA invites you to join us for our 1st annual Spring Bazaar on Saturday, April 19th from 8am-2pm at 6350 Windom Peak Blvd, Colorado Springs, CO, 80923.

We have many crafters and vendors that will help you get a last minute Easter gift or an early Mother’s day gift for that special someone!

Come and join the fun!
complete with suspense, hidden identities, injuries, revenge, secrets, romance, secret romances, jealousy, greed, and...well, you get the picture.
And, of course, it also has a surprise ending!
Part two, Dress Rehearsal for Murder,
is pretty much a soap opera in its own right,
and judging from its title, you might think there’s a murder involved.
You might be right, but then again...well, I don’t want to spoil it for you!
Let’s just say it’s got everything going for it that General Valley Hospital does,
Including the surprise ending!
But wait – there’s more! Come see the show, and we’ll throw in some silly skits, at no extra cost!
All this can be yours, for only

$2.00 if you are a student or a senior citizen or
$3.00 if you are anyone else!

You can find this production locally on the SMS stage, during the dates & times listed below:

Friday, April 25
At 7:00 PM
(doors open at 6:30)

and

Saturday, April 26
At 2:00 PM
7:00 PM
(doors open at 1:30 and 6:30, respectively)

(Payment per each show is required, please; toddlers & infants = no cost, as long as they take up no extra space.)
We will begin our trip in Paris and finish in Madrid. During your stay you’ll get a taste of Parisian style as you ride down the Champs-Élysées, an elegant boulevard packed with high-fashion boutiques. We will pass the Place de la Concorde and the Arc de Triomphe and strike a pose in front of the Eiffel Tower! At the École Militaire, you will see where Napoleon launched his rise to power. You will see the iconic glass pyramid that marks the entrance as we begin our tour of the renowned Louvre, home to treasures like da Vinci’s Mona Lisa. You will also admire the Notre Dame Cathedral’s sculptured façade, stained-glass rose windows and vaulted ceilings. We will also take a walking tour of Paris, seeing the Opéra district, the Place Vendôme, Rue du Faubourg St. Honoré, and the Tuileries. We will conclude our short stay in Paris with a visit to Versailles, the fabulous royal palace built during the reign of King Louis XIV. You’ll gaze in wonder at the rapturous apartments, fountains, gardens, and, of course, the Hall of Mirrors.

When we leave Paris, we will travel southward to the Loire Valley. We will visit the second-most visited chateau in all of France – Chenonceau. This beautiful castle spans the Cher River. We will continue to Dordogne, a rural region of France known for the Dordogne River, a leisurely lifestyle, and foie gras (goose or duck liver). The fifth day will find us leaving Dordogne and traveling to Biarritz, a luxurious city hugging the coast of the Bay of Biscay. Known for its lovely beaches, Biarritz is popular with surfers and tourists.

Next, we will drive over the Pyrenees Mountains and cross the border into Spain. Our first Spanish stop will be in the city of Pamplona, where the thunder of hooves and the thrill of the race draw thousands of eager spectators and a few daring participants every year. During your visit you’ll walk the streets where the running of the bulls takes place. You’ll also have the chance to visit the former bullring at the Plaza de Castillo. Then, marvel at Pamplona’s striking cathedral, which has been standing tall since the 14th century.

After a short stop in Zaragoza, we begin our three-day stay in the artistic city of Barcelona. Barcelona was home to such notable artists as Picasso, Gaudí, and Dali. During your stay you’ll explore open-air plazas like the Plaza de Catalunya and Plaza España. You can snap photos of the twisting spires of La Sagrada Familia and the Magic Fountain of Montjuïc, which delights with dazzling light and water shows. From atop Montjuïc Hill, you will enjoy panoramic views of the harbor below. Here you’ll also find the 1992 Olympic stadium. You will marvel at the landscape and mosaics on your visit to Park Güell. Free time will also be available as you stroll Las Ramblas, the most famous street in Barcelona. There, you can visit with flower vendors, street performers, and shop in the many tourist stores. Before leaving, we will tour Montserrat, the mountain-top monastery. A funicular will whisk us up to the Benedictine Abbey which has been a famous pilgrimage site for Catalonians for centuries. Our Barcelona stay reaches its climax with an evening of Flamenco dancing.

We extend our trip for two more days after Barcelona. Our last days will find us in the Spanish capital. After a quick train ride to Madrid, we will visit the Prado, the national art museum of Spain. That will be followed by an expertly guided tour of Madrid, which will include stops at the Puerta del Sol, Plaza Mayor, and the Palacia Real.
