

SAC Meeting for October 6, 2015

- Call to Order: 6:00pm
- Was not able to fill positions
- Shared good things:
 - Great Anti-bullying meeting
 - Awesome things happening in cooking club: etiquette, recipes, kitchen safety
 - Awesome turn out for conferences
 - Last quarter the school had four student teachers
 - Four new student teachers from UCCS started for second quarter
 - PTSA giving us buttons and tattoos for anti-bullying
 - Huge donation from Walmart: school supplies

- DAAC Report:
 - Administration still trying to recover from flood
 - A drop enrollment by .57%
 - Sand Creek zone is up in enrollment
 - Budget wants 3-5 spending points

Discussion on restorative justice vs. restorative practice

- Amber will be at the next meet with the IUP
- Next DAAC meeting October 27th at 6:00pm

- New Business:
 - Dashboard- Dr. Pickering
 - What indicators (what we measure) are most important to administration, teachers, and community members in our schooling
 - Student Innovation Assembly: student input
 - Survey was sent out: decent sample size received
 - Varied responses
 - Collected student responses (over 400) from Skyview
 - ZIA meeting took survey results and pulled which indicators were most important and important
 - We went through the indicators and chose our top 5-7 and then ranked them
 - ZIA will come back with 5-7 indicators to review again
- Mill Money Request- Tinucci
 - Replenished science department
 - School poster machine
 - Replace/Add security cameras
 - Possible Options for Money: New computers for both labs, and some science classrooms

- Teacher and Principal Reports
 - 6th grade
 - Science: finished measuring measurements
 - Language Arts: using adjectives, Mars research, outside reading assignments
 - Math: adding integers, graphs, benchmark quizzes
 - Western Hemisphere: finished ancient Greece

- Adjourn at 7:00pm