

SAC Meeting
March 6, 2018

Meeting was called to order 3:15. Members in attendance were Michelle Patchen, Lori McCoy, Carolyn Leyes, Suzy Ancell, Lindsey Alonge, and Jamie Minnet, Trisha Butler, and Lisa Fillo

Approval of Minutes: Carolyn Leyes voted to approve the minutes and Lindsey Alonge seconded the motion.

Good Things to Report: The Restorative Practice training had good attendance. The school is seeing some positive results from the use of restorative practice to help resolve conflicts.

Remington had a strong presence at the art show. Lisa Fillo complimented Miss Reid for all her hard work.

March 9th is a professional development day and March 16th is a work day for teachers. May 4th will be an assessment and May 11th will be work day for teachers.

DAAC Report: No report was available at this meeting.

PTSA: Jamie Minnet reported that PTSA is looking for new members to step up for next year. They are considering switching to a PTO instead of a PTA. Possible items to consider would be insurance and a different cost for membership.

New Business: Lisa Fillo requested that unspent MLO money be used to purchase new cafeteria tables. If money is not available this year, this request will roll over to next year.

UIP: Suzy Ancell went over the school improvement plan. She shared that our school will be working on increasing reading and math achievement. Assessments will be used to ensure that students are meeting expected benchmarks.

Teacher Reports: Lori McCoy reported that second grade is studying the War of 1812. She shared that math groups are going well and that they are seeing growth.

Lindsay Alonge shared that first grade would be going on a field trip to the space station on Thursday, March 8th.

Trisha Butler reported that kindergarten has completed their study of digraphs and double consonants. On Thursday, March 8th, students will participate in several activities to better understand life in colonial times.

Fifth Grade is studying Shakespeare.

Next Meeting: April 26th at 5:30 at Remington. Dinner will be serv
